

Spotter Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy (the “Policy”) describes how and when Spotter collects, uses and shares your information when you use our Services. Spotter receives your information through our websites, APIs, email notifications, applications, buttons, widgets, ads, commerce services (the “Spotter Services”), and our other covered services that link to this Policy (collectively, the “Services”) and from our partners and other third parties. When using any of our Services you consent to the collection, transfer, storage, disclosure, and use of your information as described in this Privacy Policy.

What Information We Collect

Account Information. When you first launch the App, we automatically assign you a user ID, then we require you to provide a user name and email address to finish sign-up. (We send you an email to reset password only at your request.) On the Spotter Services, your username is listed publicly, including on your profile page and in search results, and you can either use your username or stay anonymous. Some Spotter Services, such as searching and viewing public user profiles, do not require registration.

We may also collect the following information:

Geolocation Data. We ask you to open the location service for the App from your mobile device. If you choose not to, the Services will not function properly. Location information is only used to display you the content around you. We also organize location information of your photos to provide better user experience as part of our Services. You can revoke your consent by changing the settings or preferences on your device or by deleting Spotter from your device.

Your Content and Usage. We collect any content you submit to the Services. The content includes anything in or attached to your posts (for example, photos, texts, comments and links), as well as information about when you submitted the content, when it was enlarged or shrunk, and other activities.

Other Information you Provide to Us. When you interact with our Services or otherwise communicate with Spotter in any way, we will collect the information you choose to share with us.

Social Media Sites. We don't associate your social media account with your Spotter account. Nevertheless, you may also share Spotter's content through Facebook, Twitter, Wechat and other social media accounts.

How We Use Information We Collect

In general, we use the information we collect from and about you to provide and operate the Services, respond to your requests, and to provide customer service and technical support. We may also use information: (i) To place you in your current spot so that you can post and review content based on your current location; (ii) To place and organize your selected photos where they were taken; (iii) To enable others to enlarge or shrink the geographical radiation radius of your public posts so that they can be spread more properly and efficiently; (iv) To tailor the information that we may send or display to you, offer location customization, and send you push notifications and alerts; (v) To personalize and customize your experiences while using our Services, for example, by giving you more content from your favorite sources, showing you less content from sources you are not interested based on your preferences; (vi) To verify your identity and prevent impersonation, spam or other unauthorized or illegal activity.

How We Disclose and Share Information

We do not disclose your private personal information except in the very limited circumstances described below: (i) Service Providers. We may disclose the information we collect to third party vendors, service providers, contractors or agents who perform functions on our behalf. (ii) In Response to Legal Process. We also may disclose the information in order to comply with the law, a judicial proceeding, court order, subpoena, or other legal process. (iii) To Protect Us and Others. We also may disclose information if we believe it is necessary to investigate, prevent, or take action regarding illegal activities, suspected fraud, situations involving potential threats to the safety of any person, violations of our Terms of Service or this Policy, or as evidence in litigation in which Spotter is involved.

Privacy Options

You can control who views your content while the default option is public. You have five privacy options (public, public & hide, private, friends, groups) before you finish posting any content. If you ignore this step, any content you post is publicly available and may be shared with and viewable by others. We do not identify you by username or user ID to other Spotter users. However, we cannot prevent others from determining your identity from the content you post or how you share content through third party sites

Push Notifications/Alerts

We may send push notifications or alerts to your device. You can deactivate these messages at any time by changing the notification settings on your device or by changing your Spotter settings.

Changes to this Policy

This Policy is current as of the Effective Date set at the end. We may change this Policy from time to time, so please be sure to check back periodically. We will post any changes to this Policy at www.spotter-app.com. If we make any changes to this Policy that materially affect our practices with regard to the personal information we have previously collected from you, we will endeavor to provide you with notice in advance of such change by highlighting the change on our Site, or providing notice in our mobile app.
